> Restaurants

This is a list of restaurants of Genoa most of which I have personally visited and some of them I'm still frequently enjoying. Places which I can therefore recommend for an enjoyable evening or lunch. Almost of these restaurants can be reached by foot easily and within just a few minutes from the apartment in Vico della Rosa or Santa Maria di Castello.

Places marked with a  are an experience to visit – a must visit, but you will be able to discover more on your own.

- La Berocca

Tel. 0102468652

Trendy pub at any time of day or night

The pub where every night you can find guest artists, theatre actors and other undercover stars enjoying a night out. Strategically placed, near to the Palazzo Ducale, architectural Faculty in the heart of the old town the pub always fills up at around 7pm at the weekends and by 11 getting a drink is a real 'mission impossible'.

→ Caffè degli Specchi

Salita Pollaiuoli, 43r
Tel. 0102468193

The lower floor of this place has a retro beauty that is definitely worth checking out, with marble and wrought iron tables, white ceramic on the walls and antique mirrors that create infinite optical effects. It has a Parisian atmosphere and is great for tea; it is difficult to find a table here later on for an aperitif. When it is crowded, go to the upper floor that has a completely different character, with wooden floors and walls that create a more intimate atmosphere. It is lovely here, but certainly less original than downstairs. Good aperitifs and smoking and non-smoking rooms.

Right opposite from Palazzo Ducale

➤ Shopping for Food
